

Obituary

Born: Sunday, December 27, 1959

Died: Wednesday, November 28, 2018

This life's journey ended for Paul Boyd Durham, on Wednesday, November 28, 2018. He was released into the arms of Jesus surrounded by his loved ones. Paul bravely battled a 2 month illness of kidney cancer.

Paul was born in Winchester, IN to Denver and Deloris (Grinstead) Durham on December 27, 1959. He was a 1978 graduate of Winchester Community High School. Paul worked his way through college raising hogs and being employed by Overmyer Mould. He graduated from Ball State University. He worked in insurance and farmed until moving to Cincinnati in 1998. Paul was a salesman for Champion and became known as "Patio Paul". He retired in 2014. Paul was an avid Cincinnati Red's fan, a great host for an annual 4th of July party for many friends, family, and neighbors. He and Lisa Jo enjoyed traveling and showing visitors the many sights of Cincinnati. Paul was active in his church as an Elder, treasurer, sang in the choir, faithful worker in the church's food pantry ministry especially enjoying the Sunday School study at Mt. Olivet.
