

Obituary

Born: Wednesday, August 12, 1925

Died: Sunday, December 13, 2020

Mary Kathaleen Cassady, 95, of Winchester, passed away on Sunday, December 13, 2020. She was born in Log Lick, Kentucky on August 12, 1925 to the late Everett and Mary (Puckett) Witt. The family moved to Indiana in 1937.

Kathaleen graduated from Lynn High School in 1944. She was married to Marcus Cassady on June 8, 1943. Kathaleen was a member of the Winchester Church of the Nazarene. She gave her heart to the Lord early in her life and appreciated her church family so much. She was a stay at home mom who loved her children very much. Kathaleen loved working in her flowers, especially starting roses from small cuttings and then sharing the small bushes with her friends and neighbors. She also enjoyed painting especially landscapes which she gave to her family and friends. Kathaleen was always thankful for the many years the Lord permitted Mark and her to be together.
